

Exploring Fashion Design

With Sarah Veblen

July 24-28, 2010

DoubleTree Hotel
1117 Williston Road, S. Burlington VT 05403

This 5-day class explores the elements of design in relation to fashion, clothing, and building a wardrobe. No prior sewing, design, or drawing knowledge is required.

Day 1: Evolution of personal style. Define your style, explore design elements, and create a suitable fashion croquis for sketching design ideas.

Day 2: Design and the creative process. Explore the creative process itself, continue to study design elements, and sketch garment ideas.

Day 3: Fabrication and color. Study fabrics and colors, including how to manipulate them so that they “work” for you (or someone else).

Day 4: Fabrication and design. Combine fabrics and colors with design ideas, and explore the power of trims and embellishments.

Day 5: Pulling it all together. Design an outfit or “mix-and-match” ensemble utilizing the processes learned in the first four days.

Day 6: Optional Fabric Shopping in NYC, August 2. Continue your exploration of fabrication and design in the New York Garment District with Sarah’s guidance. Study the process of selecting fabrics for your designs. Exploring Fashion Design is not a pre-requisite for this day trip.

Course Fees:

Exploring Fashion Design

$725.00: includes coffee and tea service; lunch on your own.
Non-refundable deposit: $150.00. Final payment due June 1, 2010.

Fabric Shopping in NYC on August 2, 2010

Meet in NYC Garment District (location and suggested flights for a day trip will be provided).

$175 fee includes day-long event; lunch on your own.
Non-refundable deposit: $75. Final payment due June 1, 2010.

To register or for more information contact:

Cathy Griffiths: (802) 846-7577, cgriffiths.scholze@gmail.com or Sarah
Veblen (410) 472-9253, www.sarahveblen.com